Homecoming Begins Friday

PEP PARADE SETS PACE FOR HOMECOMING WEEKEND

Homecoming begins Friday noon with the Pep parade. Students are to decorate their own cars. A prize will be given by the Homecoming committee for the best decorated car. Cars will be lined up according to decorations. Undecorated cars will be in the back.

Parade will start on campus drive.

The cars will return to campus and stay until 3:45 when they will meet in the "U" in front of the Ad building to meet the train at 3:50 for escorting the Pasadena team to the stadium where they will work out.

At 6:15 the two teams and the coaches will meet in the Union for a banquet.

The evening will begin at 8:00 with the bonfire which will be held east of the dorms. The burning of the "B" at Table Rock will be the signal to start the fire and the rally. After the rally we will serpentine over to the Union for the dance and the crowning of King Beard.

At the beginning of the dance the teams and their coaches will be introduced to the student body. During the intermission the crowning of King Beard will take place. The dance will then continue until 11:00.

Activity Tickets Acceptable For Wildlife Program

Monday evening, Nov. 15, 8:00 p.m. in the auditorium, BJC students will have the opportunity to see Bert Harwell, famed lecturer, naturalist and photographer, on "Canada West" illustrated with motion pictures.

BJC student executive board has made a deal with the Valley Natural Historical Society to permit our students to attend two lectures on this campus at no extra cost to them than student activity tickets. By purchasing them $1.50, all student activity tickets will be honored at the lecture and another to be presented March 16.

Mr. Harwell you will take to one of the more recently developed parts of the North American continent, "Canada West", by Harwell, a skilled naturalist and wildlife photographer, nature-logue, a special kind of lecture of this yet unspoiled Harwell is a graduate of the University of California in 1914 and later received his master's degree there. From 1929 to 1940 he was employed as park naturalist in Yosemite national park.

In the fall of 1940 he joined the staff of the National Audubon Society. His lectures combine a colorful presentation with his wide life knowledge, creating a most entertaining, as well as informative experience.

Students are urged to take advantage of this entertainment that is available to them on their activity ticket. If any of you saw Walt Disney's "The Vanishing Prairie", you saw some of Mr. Harwell's work, as he contributed several pictures to that picture.

Don't miss this event. Plan to attend this evening ahead now so you can see Mr. Harwell's pictures and his lecture.

Bert Harwell, famed naturalist and photographer, readies his camera for a wildlife shot which may be used in his nature-logue or perhaps a movie.

Saturday is the big day. Activities get underway at 11:00 with the parade. Floats entered by most clubs on campus will be judged as they pass the Capitol.

Pre-game activities start at 1:00 with the eight bands, which participated in the parade, performing until kickoff time which is 2:15. These bands are from BJC, Nyssa, Vale, Mountain Home, Wendell, Payette, Fruitland and Boise high schools.

The queen selection, the display of the three winning floats and the BJC band performance will all take place during the half time.

Concluding the Homecoming activities will be the Homecoming dance at 9:00 p.m. Both ballrooms will be decorated to the theme of "King Football". The dance is semi-formal and corsages are in order.

Alumni are reminded to call Mrs. Burke, dean of women, to reserve their tickets for the dance, as no tickets will be available at the door the night of the dance.

INCOMPLETES

Incomplete may be given in cases where work has been satisfactory up to the last three weeks in the semester. Work not made up within the first half of the semester after the student returns to college automatically becomes a failure unless extension of time is granted by the faculty.

In observance of Veteran's Day, there will be no classes at the college November 11. Classes will resume at 8:00 a.m. on Friday, November 12.

THEATRE TICKETS ON SALE

Walter Yount, IK theatre ticket chairman, said today the campaign for the sale of theatre tickets to students in the junior high schools, Boise and Meridian high schools, St. Teresa's academy, student nurses and BJC students.

Yount said the tickets will sell for 50c and will allow a student to attend a show for 40c that would normally cost 50c, a 75c show for 65c and a 90c show for 75c.

Money raised by the IK's will be placed in their scholarship fund.

Actual construction of the new science building began Monday, October 25, with the first foundation excavation. Construction will continue on through the winter and spring until the edifice is completed. Progress reports on this building activity will appear from time to time in the Roundup.

Auditorium Sports New Copper Doors; Replace Wood Ones

Hey kids! How many of you have stopped by to admire our new auditorium doors?

Since 1942 when the auditorium was constructed the doors have been continually revarnished due to wear and tear from both students and old mother nature. Rather than to have to revarnish the doors periodically, it was decided it would be more advantageous to replace the veneer with copper.

This was a project of the Boise Junior College students under the direction of Mr. Wain, sheet metal instructor.

Organ Recital At Religious Service

In our twentieth-century world, filled with threatening problems that give rise to a multitude of inner fears and conflicts, persons having faith in a Supreme Power are very fortunate.

A great revival of interest in religion is taking place in our society, as man becomes increasingly aware of his need of faith, and dependence on God.

For this reason, it is important, if not essential, that we, as founders of America's next generation, cultivate a wholesome spiritual life in our respective faith.

Weekly devotional services are held in the auditorium Wednesdays at 9:50 a.m., under the auspices of the Inter-Faith Council.

The ministers of this community are giving their full cooperation in assisting with these services. Mr. Bratt plays well-chosen, inspirational organ numbers.

CARR IS CANNED

Frank thought he had an ideal situation for taking the Morrison girls' picture. The girls were to stand in the back of the dorm and he would take the photo from a bathroom window in the boys' suite. He was right. It worked just fine.

But — when he went to leave, some joker has put a chair in front of the door. Mr. Carr struggled for a while and finally asked the girls for help. Luckily for him there was one boy left in the dorm.

Homecoming Queen Finalists Chosen

Five Homecoming queen finalists were chosen last week by the male students of BJC. Picked from the 15 girls sponsored by campus organizations were: Roberta Wilson, sophomore, sponsored by Pi Sigma Sigma; Beverly Burwell, sophomore, sponsored by Valkyries; Tammy Ogden, freshman, sponsored by the Intercollegiate Knights, and Pat Dolan, freshman, sponsored by Driscoll hall.

All five girls are graduates of Boise High. Roberta, Beverly and Tammy attended BJC last year.

These girls will appear in the pep parade Friday and also in the Homecoming parade. From the finalists the Homecoming queen will be selected by the football team. She will be crowned during half-time at the Bronco Bowl game and then recrowned at the Homecoming dance.

Dr. Baker Announces Devotional Schedule

Dr. Paul Baker, dean of men, announced the following schedule for our weekly devotional services:

Rev. Saul Miller, pastor of First Congregational church in Boise, November 10.

Rev. Karl Ladwig, of St. Paul's Lutheran church, November 17.

Canon John D. Riley of St. Michael's Cathedral, November 24.

Dr. Baker stated that he felt it was truly important that college students should take out time from their work in the middle of the week for a period of meditation and quietness.

Ricks Ties Broncos 26-26

Side Line Chatter

By Charlie Shangle

Flying saucers, H-bombs, Communists, elections, school work and just about every other phase of life is shoved to one side as the talk centers around Homecoming and the BIG GAME—the Broncos vs. the Lancers of Pasadena! For almost a year now the dyed-in-the-wool football fan has been waiting for this game, and despite the blemished record of the Lancers, the fans want to see the Broncos dump our long time nemis.

The big question is just how will the Broncos perform in this year's big game. The real answer will have to wait 'til Saturday afternoon, but just for kicks let's see if we can get a glimpse of what may be the future.

So far as this writer is concerned the Broncos will beat the Lancers by 29 points or more! This is not putting Coach Smith's team on the spot—they are always there by virtue of Bakersfield's 27-0 beating of the Lancers some time back.

The key to all of this, as far as this writer is concerned, is the second half of the BJC-Everett game. For two quarters the Broncos played the kind of football that potentially could make them the best in the history of this school.

They beat Everett three TD's to one and they accomplished the feat the way GREAT football teams have done in the past. In the three TD's the Broncos marched 72, 55 and 45 yards, all by the use of sheer power! They required no fumbles, intercepted passes, penalties, or any other breaks to set up the scores. The Bronco defense crushed any Everett offense.

Last year the University of Notre Dame played Georgia Tech in a battle that would help decide the mythical national championship. G.T. had 23 games without a loss and they kicked off to the Irish, from their 20 the Irish ripped 80 yards in 13 plays—all of them off tackle, no end sweeps or passes! They showed G.T. who was going to win that game. Well, the Broncos in that second half did the same thing by unleashing a furious ground attack that required no passing, penalties or fancy end stuff.

To sum it up, I think that the Broncos will play four periods of second half Everett ball and rack up a great win. Say 48-13!

Two weeks ago I had a talk to an old team mate of mine, Ed Troxel. In my books Ed was the best right half that ever wore the blue and orange and he was looking at Coach Smith's 54 edition playing the Southern Utah College.

"Well, Ed," I asked him, "what do you think of this year's team?"

"Boy, they really play football! I'm glad I'm not out there. I think that this team could chew our '48 team up. Those backs run like they mean it!"

They had quite a battle at Bakersfield a couple of weeks ago. It seems that the Jaycee conference Bakersfield is in, does not want to see them return to the Junior Rose Bowl Game. The Pasadena chamber of commerce claimed that they could choose any team they wanted. So they had a big meeting and it was decided that Bakersfield could play again.

Bakersfield celebrated by dumping Harbor JC of California 42-13.

So these two blockers stalled their automobile on a railroad track, saw? They looked out to see an express train thundering down upon them. "Man," cried one, "big that crazy 3-D!"

Player of the Week

Bob Fulwyler has often been called the unsung player, for upon his choice of plays rests the fate of the Bronco offense. To add to his burden is the fact that he must lead the blocking on every ground play other than a quarterback sneak—and when it comes to the BQS he is one of the best that BJC has ever had.

Bob is also an accomplished defensive player and, despite his size, he plays at the defensive halfback spot, one which calls for a lot of speed and ability.

This is Bob's last year with Coach Lyle Smith's Big Orange and we certainly have enjoyed

Girls PE Program Offers Variety

The women of BJC have many activities offered. Included are such things as social dancing and swimming. In the gym school sports such as basketball, archery, tennis, and fencing are the most popular. Badminton and fencing claim the most enthusiasts in the fall with tennis taking the lead in the spring.

Team sports such as field hockey, volleyball, basketball, and softball are offered if there is enough demand for them. Volleyball is now being played at BJC on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

Geologists Go Fielding

The geology class with instructor, Fletcher Brown, took a trip to the vicinity of Arrowrock dam Tuesday afternoon last. The class stopped at a number of places enroute. They were primarily interested in various features, the characteristics of the Boise river valley, and the remnants of early lava flows near Arrowrock dam.

Watching him perform in the very best of tradition of many other fine Bronco quarterbacks.

An inspired Ricks team held the Boise Broncos touchdowns Saturday as they also scored four tie the game 26-26.

George Kom took the kickoff on Boise's 20, it 65 yards to Ricks 15, was stopped. George was on this play and saw no action in the game. Ed led the ball on the following play forged ahead to the one-yard line, and on the next play over for BJC's first six-point try for extra point was a Ricks took the kickoff, able to go the necessary for a first down, kicked Broncos who also were to get a first and 10. Boise and Ricks' star back, ran the punt back 15 yards. Vikings then fumbled a Bronco 20 yard line when recovered. A Lodge-to-Turn was good for 47 yards, Ed then took the ball the way for the goal. Jim kicked the extra point. Broncos led 13-0.

In the second period the started showing the power. A series of line plays them good yardage and then feet statue of liberty play the pass to BJC's (on No. 46, Clark, took it on Ricks' first TD.

In the second half, and Clark ran wild, making gains through Boise's line. When went over for Ricks touchdown, and they were 13-13. The Broncos scored as they were unable to Vikings as they soon took possession of the ball and scored on time as Jorgenson went on the run. Boise trailed by 14 and this seemed to wake Broncos as they showed the old Boise spirit. Fred Jensen made his first appearance in the game. He teamed with Lodge to get the Broncos back in the game. Bryant Lemo went around end for the try for point was good. The Broncos closed the game as they trailed 20-13.

The final minutes were as Riklanec, Lodge and a charging line woke the fan another touchdown. Fred out went over from the two the game. The try for point was good.
